

Lesson 1 Ending Activity:

Think about your favorite book. Do you have a favorite part of that book?

Think about who the characters are in that part. What do they say to each other? What happens in that part of the book?

Can you write a short scene based on that part of book? Be sure to write down what the characters say to each other and how they move.

