

Mr. Andrew asks the question below in the middle of this lesson. When he asks, be sure to pause the video and think about your answer. Feel free to talk to family members and peers with you about your answer!

Discussion Question: If you were to write a story about a villain, would that character be the Antagonist or the Protagonist of the story?

Lesson 2 Ending Activity:

Think about your favorite book again. Can you make a list of all the characters in the story? Be sure to write whether they are a Protagonist, Antagonist, or Neither next to their name.

Example List:

Julia—Protagonist
Franklin—Antagonist
Bob—Neither

Now, look at the scene you wrote after Lesson 1. Do you have a Protagonist or Antagonist in that scene? Add them into your scene (it's OK if they don't appear in that part of the book). What does each character want? What should they say?
